COMES NOW, George Wood, by his counsel, Feuerstein & Smith, LLP and does hereby move to strike the Plaintiff's Supplemental Information submitted in response to Defendant's Motion for Summary Judgment dated October 30, 2007 and in support thereof sets forth the following:

1. Presently pending before the Court is the Defendant's Motion for Summary Judgment. The Defendant made his Motion for Summary Judgment on the 18th of September, 2007.
2. After Defendant made his Motion for Summary Judgment", the Defendant filed his opposition to Defendant's Motion for Summary Judgment and Defendant filed his reply to Plaintiff's Opposition on October 24, 2007.
3. On November 2, 2007 Defendant received "Plaintiff's Supplemental Information, submitted in response to Defendant's Motion for Summary Judgment that was filed by pro se Plaintiff George R. Simpson. Defendant moves to strike the pleading of the Plaintiff because the submission of Plaintiff violates L.R.Civ.P. 7.1(g) which states that only a Motion, a Response in Opposition, and a Reply may be served on counsel and filed with the Court; further response or reply may be only made by leave of Court before filing (counsel will be sanctioned for a violation of this limitation).
4. Pro se Plaintiff George R. Simpson has now violated local rule 7.1(g) by filing his "supplemental information" which, in reality, is nothing other than a "sur-reply" which may only be made by leave of Court obtained before filing.
5. Therefore, Defendant moves to strike the pleading filed by George R. Simpson dated October 30, 2007 and further moves that Simpson be sanctioned for a violation of L.R.Civ.P. 7.1(g).

DATED: November 20, 2007

Respectfully submitted,
